SHORT BIOGRAPHY

I studied ethnomusicology at the Department of Ethnomusicology, Faculty of Music, Belgrade. During my studies I published several papers about traditional dance in Serbia and abroad. I completed my master studies with the paper From original notation of traditional music and dance to its adaptation, treatment and composition (2006) which extends frameworks of ethnomusicology and ethnochoreology in Serbia toward the stage presentational forms. At the same Faculty I enrolled in PhD studies in 2009 in which I have been elaborating on the phenomena of scenic transposition of traditional dance and music.

I worked as a professor of traditional music and dance at the High school for teachers in Kikinda, Serbia (2006/2007) and taught choreology at the Academy of Dance in Ljubljana, Slovenia (2011-2013). I was involved in the work of the Centre for the study of folk dances from Serbia as a lecturer, teacher for Labanotation, orchestration, accordion and traditional flute. I am an artistic director, dance teacher and choreographer of the Academic Cultural and Artistic Society “Kolo” which I founded in the town of Koper in Slovenia in 2007. Since 2008 I have participated in several dance festivals as a lecturer of dance performances within the organization of the Public Fund for Cultural Activities (JSKD) for folk dance and music groups of minority ethnic communities in Slovenia. I collaborate with many cultural-artistic societies and folk dance and singing groups, institutions and scholars.

Since the 2006 I have been a member of the International Council for Traditional Music (ICTM), their Study Group on Ethnochoreology and since 2014 of their Study Group on Music and Dance in Southeastern Europe. Since 2011 I have been a member of the International organization Kinetography Laban (ICKL). I am also a member of Cultural and ethnomusicological society Folk Slovenija.

My professional interests are various and include: stage presentation of folk dance and music, folk dance choreography, music/dance relationships, ethnochoreology, labanotation and dance pedagogy, playing Serbian and Balkan music on accordion and traditional flute.
